Hulcher for the Brownles, and Burnett for the East End Blues, did the slatwork for the two teams at Broad Street Park yesterday atternoon and there was suchtpaws. The game went to the Brownles by the score of 6 to 1, but this does not mean that the team from the Capitol City League was so much off-played. Team work is lacking and an-other catcher would be a strong addi-tion to the nine, Welsh is directly re-sponsible for three of the runs tallied by sponsible for three of the runs tuned of the champions of the Twin City League. But Hulcher had his head with him, as he always has, and this won the game, He allowed five hits and these came at literant times. Burnett's wildness in the first inning in giving two men bases or balls and then allowing Sharp to connec balls and then allowing Snarp to connect with one for two sacks made two runs as a starter for the champions. Yet in no inning was there more than one hit gotten off the southpaw's delivery. He is a strong man and deserved better support an was given him. The Brownies played an excellent game

The Brownies played an excellent game. McEvoy at third, accepted several difficult chances and acquitted himself handsomely. And Hicks at short, didn't let anything get through that territory. His "Run Dogsy, Run," gag was working o perfection. Jack Anthony, the star batter of the Twin City League, and one of the best all-round players in Richmond, held down the initial sack for the East End Blues, and out in left-garden, Morgan, an erst-while Fultonite, and late of North Carolina, was the receiver for all long ones. in that territory. Morgan played a good game with the exception of the times he was at bat. Burnett had him guessing from the start, and there was nothing doing in the hit business with Mr. Mor-

The East End Blues will be greatly strengthened to-day and a lively game is anticipated. Elmore will very probably be behind the bat for the boys, and it is probable that Mills will be in the game. One or the best players on the Blues' team is Moore at third base.

The grounds were closed with appropriate exercises. Several addresses were served plentifully with fee cream and cake. Iardela's band played through the evening and gave to the children the kind of airs they most love.

Mr. Charles B. Cooke, president of the Civic Improvement League, on behalf of Miss Ada Arundel, presented each of the children with a flower bulb, telling them the way in which the flowers should be attended and planted.

The teachers who have had charge of the grounds this season are Mrs. Turner, who had direct charge, and Misses Kate Staples, Harriet Norvell, Bessic Krouse, and Misses Do Saussaure, Jones and Ballard. The way in which these laddes have managed the children, and the influence for good which they have exerted, is worthy of the highest commendation.

PHILADBLPHIA September 18.—Driving up to the office of Justice of the Peace Cross, on Arch Street, Camden, esterday, a young than and woman said hey would like to get married. 'Squire Poss quickly accommodated them. The language his residence as Treaton, while its bride said she lived on West Daubin Street, Philadelphia.

After 'Squire Cross had prepared a rectly certificate of marriage the groom xelaimed: Baritone Rooster Wanted.

"That certainly is nice. That's worth a dollar extra."

Turning to his new wife he asked for "another dollar." He apparently placed it in an envelope with some other hills and gave it to the "squire. After they had left he opened the envelope, expecting to find a fat fee. What he did find was a roll of green paper.

Relationship Problem.

Relationship Problem.

TOLEDO, O., September 19.—One of the most regiarkable marriage tangles ever known was presented to the authorities in Probate Court recently, when Edward and Fred. Metzger, twins, made application to marry sisters.

This in tiself was strange enough, but when the clerk was preparing the papers it was learned that an elder brother of the twins had married/a sister of the two prospective brides of the twins. A look at the entry journal showed that in May, 1994, Albert Metzger, a brother, had married ida Miller, the third sister. While the people in the court were having a good augh at this Edward spoke up and said: "Let me tell you something that will set you to thinking deeper. Our father is the husband of the girls' mother."

This is the story: Lewis C. Metzger married Mrs. Christina Miller. Metzger had, as stated, three sons, two of them twins. Mrs. Miller had three daughters. Now the daughters become the brides of the sons. In other words, Metzger is the father-la-law of his stepdaughters, and Mrs. Matzger is the mother-in-law of her stepsons.

And still the wonder does not cease.

Claim Social Equality.

PHILADELPHIA, September 19.—"I am socially as good as any white man here." Aroused by the attitude of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which desires to unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church on the condition that the color line is drawn, Rev. Storer L. Joly, a negro minister of Atlantic City, made this statement yesterday before the Methodist ministors at Wesley Hall, No. 1018 Arch Street.

this statement yesterday before the Methodist ministers at Wesley Hall, No. 1018 Arch Street.
He declared that the white political element dominated the church, and that they were in favor of eliminating the negro so as to fasten more firmly upon him the chains of disfranchisement. The speaker's dramatic plea moved many of the ministers to tears, and his defense of the negro evoked rounds of applause.
"Since God Almighty has not held us responsible for the color of our skin," he continued, "I don't see why it should be criticised by the church. This prejudice on the part of the Church, South, makes it harder than ever to save the black man; first we have to prove that God is with him and that the Methodist Episcopal Church is also with him."

Bars Pet Names.
CHICAGO, ILL., September 19.—"Pet names for a sweetheart may be all right in courtship, but they ought not to be carried as far as as marriage license." commented License Clerk Salmonson today upon redelving a letter from the Rov. William A. Quayle, of this city, explaining an error in a license issued a few days ago for the wedding of Ephraim Davis to "Miss Dallas Texas." According to Mr. Quayle the correct name of the young woman befuge her marriage was Catherine Delles, and her "pet" name was "Dallas Texas." Mr. Quayle ascribed this mistake to a, "rattled condition of the bridegroom" when Mr. Davis applied for the marriage license.

The prosale municipal records have been duly corrected to show the bride's actual maiden hame.

R. C. Phillips, who keaps a grocery store at No. 265 Elm Street, said one of his neighbors had objected to a roost ter he owned because it crowed in a lenor key, and had had him summoned to the Court of Special Sessions in the morning on a charge of maintaining a nulsance.

The judge told Phillips to get a rooster with a more musical voice, and Phillips inserted the advertisement.

BRIBERY KILLED PRIZE-FIGHT BILL

Serious Charge Made Against the Legislature of California.

MEMBERS WERE ENTERTAINED

Their Hosts Were Gamblers and Managers of the Fistic Contests.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BAN FRANCISCO, September 19 .-Billy Nolan, manager for "Battling" Nelson, the prize fighter, has made a statement that a fund of $7,000 raised in San Francisco to defeat the Raiston anti-prize fight bill at the last session of the State Legislature. He charges that Harry Corbett, with whom he had deposited $2,500 forfest money prior to Nelson's recent fight with Britt, is holding $1,000 of the forfelt money as Nolan's share of the alleged corruption fund used at Sacramento. Corbett admits holding the money, but said Nolan owes him that amount. He denies that any money was paid legislators to defeat the prize fight bill. During the last session of the Callfornia Legislature Senator Raiston introduced a bill prohibiting professional prize fighting in the State. The bill passed the Senate, and enough votes its passage in the house. A few days in the Assembly, a delegation of San Francisco gamblers, prize fight managers Francisco gamblers, prize fight managers and promoters invaded Sacramento. They did considerable entertaining, and when the anti-prize fight bill came up for consideration it was defeated. Since then San Francisco has become the prize fight center of the country. Nolan's charges were published here, and District Attorney Soymour, of Sacramento, has announced that as soon as he is through with the case of ex-Senator Emmons, who is on trial for ac-
